

Best Wishes from the Farm Team.

April 2020

These are certainly difficult and uncertain times for us all. We are in the grip of the Coronavirus outbreak and everyone in the UK (and indeed the World) must all do our bit, whether that be isolating at home, delivering and providing essential services or working in the frontline medical professions.

So, what is our role in all this...

As Farmers and agricultural specialists, never has the phrase 'From Farm to Fork' been more apt. Ensuring the continued supply of high-quality meat, milk and vegetable products to the UK public is a crucial responsibility and one we must take seriously. We must all play our part to uphold the welfare, quality and production standards that the Great British Farmer can be globally proud of.

Now for something completely different....

The Farmer, by Amelia Barr

The king may rule o'er land and sea,
The lord may live right royally,
The soldier ride in pomp and pride,
The sailor roam o'er ocean wide.
But this or that, whate'er befall,
The farmer he must feed them all.

The writer thinks, the poet sings,
The craftsmen fashion wondrous things,
The doctor heals, the lawyer pleads,
The miner follows the precious leads.
But this or that, whate'er befall,
The farmer he must feed them all.

The merchant he may buy and sell,
The teacher do his duty well;
But men may toil through busy days,
Or men may stroll through pleasant ways.
From king to beggar, whate'er befall,
The farmer he must feed them all.

The farmer's trade is one of worth.
He's partner with the sky and earth,
He's partner with the sun and rain,
And no man loses for his gain.
And men may rise, or men may fall,
But the farmer he must feed them all.

God bless the man who sows the wheat,
Who finds us milk and fruit and meat.
May his purse be heavy, his heart be light,
His cattle and corn and all go right.
God bless the seeds his hands let fall,
For the farmer he must feed us all.

Stay safe and best wishes from all of us here at

The George Vet Group.

Cheers,

Ian.
